

SIDNA OR CLAUDE
FIRED FIRST SHOTAttorney-General Sends Transcript of Record Which Makes That Fact Clear.Outlaws Beg Food
From Mountaineer

Sidna Allen and Wesley Edwards, who took up the trail, were seen by a posse of men from Mount Airy, Va., April 5.—According to a report from the Mount Airy posse, the two outlaws came to his cabin last night and begged for food. Allen came to his door, he said, and Edwards stood guard. Allen declared he had taken food that day. They got food from Smith and took to the mountains. The mountaineer feared to tell the posse of the outlaws, and it was morning when a posse took up the trail. Sheriff Haynes, of Mount Airy, took the posse, but they refused to go on the trail, and the posse went off on Smith's directions.

The posse are posting copies of Governor Mann's proclamation calling upon all citizens to withhold aid from the fugitive outlaws. Allen and Edwards are the only free men of the county who, on March 14, aided Carroll county outlaws and murdered the judge and the outlaws of the court, a judge and a bystander.

Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams has forwarded to Joseph C. W. of Pulaski, senior counsel for the prosecution in the case against the outlaws, the transcript of the statements made by witnesses at Hillsville. When the Circuit Court began its new term on Wednesday of last week the evidence of those who had been in the office of Commonwealth's Attorney S. Floyd Landreth. Their statements were taken down stenographically by T. Gray Hadden, secretary to the Attorney-General, and transcribed them after his return to Hillsville.

These statements, supposed to be identical with the material produced before the grand jury, are significant in many particulars. They are the result of careful questioning by William Stimpson, of counsel for the Commonwealth, and tend to show how the crime was carried out.

Without going into the evidence as to disputed points, it may be said that every scrap of testimony showed beyond a shadow of a doubt that either Sidna Allen or Claude Edwards fired the first shot in the courtroom. There cannot be the slightest doubt on this point. Yet with that curious sort of twist to the human mind which would seek apologies or excuses everywhere, the impression has arisen in some quarters that some of the court officials fired first. This is certainly a mistake, although Sheriff Webb, it would appear, had the right under the circumstances to offer the first shot.

WANT ALL OFFERS
PUT IN WRITINGStreet Committee Defers Action on Opening of Monument Avenue Until Then.

GETTING PLANS IN SHAPE

Claim Made That Railroads Are Holding Up City on Stone Paving.

The offers not being in writing, the Committee on Streets last night deferred action on the plans for opening Monument Avenue for three and one half miles beyond the corporate limits, until the proper legal papers can be drafted, with the necessary releases, but a number of members indicated their approval of the proposition as verbally presented, and there seems no doubt, but that in due time it will be recommended to the Council for adoption. T. Francis Green presented a map showing a proposed extension of Monument Avenue from its present end at the Rossenth Road, to a uniform width of 140 feet into Henrico county, to the Three Chopt road a distance of approximately three and one-half miles. All of the property owners beyond the city limits agreed to donate the property for the public improvements, and this agreement Mr. Green undertook to secure in writing.

Forbes Wants $15,000.
A subcommittee had been in negotiation with W. S. Forbes, owner of the tract on the Rossenth Road at the head of the present avenue, and recommended acceptance of his offer to dedicate the strip through his tract, 140 feet wide, for the opening of Monument Avenue, and also to dedicate land for certain other streets, for the sum of $15,000. The committee wanted to know just what other streets were included, and Chairman Adams withdrew from the committee room and held a conference with Mr. Forbes on the telephone as to the extent of his offer.

It was then stated that Mr. Forbes would agree for that price also to dedicate land for extending Grace Street, Franklin Street and Park Avenue, and for the cross street west of the Roseneath Road, known as Gilmour Street.
He requested, however, that Gilmour Street be not opened through between Franklin Street and Monument Avenue, as he proposed to erect a home there and park the surrounding grounds.

All of the papers were referred to the City Attorney to be put in proper form. Mr. Green offering to secure the signatures of property owners on the proposed strip to be dedicated as a public highway, and the City Engineer was instructed to make a plat of the Forbes property showing what streets are to be dedicated. While the only present cost to the city for land is the $15,000 charged by Mr. Forbes, all other property being donated, no provision has been made for grading or improving the roadway of the new thoroughfare. The matter is to come back to the Street Committee when proper releases and signatures are obtained.

Paving Monument Avenue.
Hill Montague and others appeared in behalf of the unpaid portion of Monument Avenue lying between Addition Street and the Boulevard, asserting that the enormous traffic in automobiles, with their dust-raising and burning motion made it most unpleasant to live on this street, unless paved.
The committee recommended to the Council a special appropriation to pave a probable cost of $15,000. Mr. Sul-question to smooth pave East Broad

The committee recommended adoption of an ordinance transferring the rights recently granted to the Richmond, Urbana and Peninsula Railroad to the newly formed Richmond and Kappahannock Railway Company; a resolution authorizing construction of a sewer in Thirty-sixth Street, to cost $1,400; and a resolution to acquire land to open Lombardy Street from Broad Street across the right of way of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad.

Railroads Holding Up City.
Mr. Bolling brought to the attention of the committee the fact that all stone paving and curbing is costing the city about 19 or 12 per cent. more this year than heretofore. So far as he had been able to ascertain, this was due to the fact that all quarries furnishing this stone are under one control, and make a uniform price, and because excessive charges are being made by the railroads for delivering stone from the quarries. Mr.
Bolling said the city was giving the railroads large concessions in the use of streets without charge, allowing sidings in many directions, and should be given some consideration in return.
He had been informed that one road would not take the cars of another, and as he had been able to ascertain, to get cars delivered on sidings convenient to the work to be done, unless the order for the stone were placed through some private merchant, for whose use the sidings had been built.
The committee agreed that the conduct of the railroads in view of the many concessions made by the Council on Streets was very high-handed, and the City Engineer was instructed to write an emphatic protest on behalf of the committee, the suggestion being made that further switching and siding concessions be held up to the committee until some more reasonable attitude is adopted by the railroads toward the city and its contractors engaged on public work.
